VOTE TOMORROW!

Daly City Record

DALY CITY, SAN MATEO COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, MONDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1939 — SPECIAL EDITION

How To Mark Your Ballot

To those voters who wish guidance on the state and county propositions to be voted on tomorrow, The Record makes a complete list of recommendations on page 4.

These suggestions are made following careful study of each issue. The editors sincerely believe that their decisions have been intelligent ones.

FINAL SUMMARY

Proposition No. 1 Ham and Eggs

Last week Franklin D. Roosevelt re-emphasized his condemnation of 30-Thursday as a "fantastic fiscal scheme" and warned Californians against the disaster of being "misled by those who advocate short cuts to Utopia"—while one Lawrence Allen declared that "Ham and Eggs" solves the problem of security for the old, solves unemployment, and assures prosperity.

Mr. Roosevelt is president of the United States. Lawrence Allen is a "Ham and Eggs" promoter. Lawrence was under investigation by the Los Angeles grand jury last year.

So it goes. On the one side, condemning 30-Thursday, are such men as President Roosevelt, Governor Olson, Senator Hiram Johnson—and all the reputable economists and tax-experts. On the other side are such "leaders" as Lawrence and Willis Allen, Nathan T. Porter, and—not to be overlooked—Roy G. Owens, self-styled "engineer-economist," who is recognized neither as an engineer not an economist by any authoritative body. And the only political organization that has espoused "Ham and Eggs" is the Communist party.

Without examining a single clause of the 30-Thursday measure any sensible voter could decide his vote by a mere glance at the "who's who" of proponents and opponents!

Proposition No. 2 Chiropractors

Proposals to change the California Chiropractic act, embodied in Proposition 2 on the November 7 ballot, are meeting with determined opposition from many leading chiropractors, among them men who were responsible for the present state law.

The proposed changes, it is pointed out, made ostensibly for the purpose of widening the scope and usefulness of chiropractors will, in effect, permit the practice of medicine by men who have neither the training not the educational background.

Dr. T. F. Ratledge, chairman of the legislative committee of the California Chiropractic association, who is known as the "father of chiropractic in California," having led the fight that resulted in the enactment of the present

Pension Is Election Issue; Marlene's First Vote

Both Ohio and California will vote Tuesday, on elaborate pension programs. California will revive the "ham-and-eggs" $30-every-Thursday proposal defeated last year, and the San Francisco stock exchange, above, threatened to move to Reno, Nevada, if it wins. Marlene Dietrich, right, German born movie actress, will cast her first American vote in California. In Ohio, the voters will decide on the plan of Herbert S. Bigelow, inset, who would give $50 a month to every single person over 60, and $40 a month for each husband and wife.

50-DAY MEET FOR RACING SUGGESTED

Select Tanforan Officials

Prize Purses Announced

Forecasting a new setup in horse racing for San Mateo county tracks, the California Horse Racing Board today is conducting a survey with the view of changing the 25-day meetings each Spring and Fall for Bay Meadows and Tanforan.

Change in the schedule was recommended to the Board last May by J. W. Marchbank, directing owner of Tanforan, who urged the Board to grant one 50-day meeting annually to each track. Marchbank made application for the first 50-day meeting next Spring.

If granted the 50-day Spring meeting, Marchbank said it is his plan to hang up attractive purses for a meeting to open at Tanforan shortly after the close of Santa Anita. This plan, he added, will attract many high-class horses from the Southern Cali-

"Colma Bad Boy," Accomplice Dead

Murder wrote its own bloody and bitter end last week to the crime career of Ray Louis Lagomarsino, Colma "bad boy," whose bullet-ridden body was found Thursday on a lonely stretch of Thornton beach. Beside him was the corpse of Leo Tyma, companion in a recent escape from Folsom prison.

Mystery still surrounds the killings, as every theory and story yet advanced is full of improbabilities. Police refuse to believe the death-duel story told by Ray Thompson, last of the trio who escaped from the Folsom road camp.

Private funeral services for Lagomarsino were conducted Saturday from the funeral chapel of W. C. Lasswell and company. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Alice Lagomarsino, and three sisters.

Former Resident Killed In Mine Cave-in

Alfrred Raeder, former resident of Daly City, was killed last Tuesday night by a falling boulder on the Nevada Tungsten Mining company property south of Rawhide, Nevada, according to press dispatches.

Raeder and his brother, Charles, were caught 100 ft. below the surface of the mine in a cave-in.

Goes After Busses

Mayor Paul G. Selmi was authorized by a unanimous decision of the city council at a special session Friday evening to leave this week for Detroit, Michigan, to bring back the two busses for Daly City's new municipal bus line.

It is estimated that this step, driving the busses rather than shipping them by freight, will save the city at least $350.

Accompanying the mayor will be two drivers, Ollie Beecher and George McLeod. Word from the Ford factory indicates that the busses will be ready November 15. It is expected that it will take eight or nine days to drive them here. Arriving here approximately November 23, the busses will be put into operation by December 1, according to present plans.

Councilman Henry Sundermann was appointed to fill the office of temporary mayor during Selmi's absence.

Also present at the council meeting was P. O. Harding, assistant engineer, district No. 4, State Highway Division, who discussed the quarter cent gasoline tax funds.

Specifications Filed For $5000 Gas Station

Plans for a $5,000 Richfield gas and service station, to be built on the corner of Gambetta and Mission streets, were on file this week in the city clerk's office.

Official approval of the specifications is expected shortly.

TRAGEDY ENDS HONEYMOON AT AUTO COURT

Young Iowa Couple Are Victims Of Carbon Monoxide

Death by suffocation wrote a tragic finale last week to the honey-moon here of a boy and girl from Iowa.

Behind the locked doors of a de luxe auto court cabin at the Daly City end of Mission street—with all lights turned on and a gas heater going at top heat—were found the bodies, Saturday, of James H. Welch, 22, heir to a Des Moines printing business, and his blonde 19 year old bride, the former Cleo Lucille Allen of Ames, Iowa. They had been married in Des Moines just a week before.

Girl Found In Bed

Her body lay across the cabin apartment's bed, half nude—the upper half of her blue silk pajamas rumpled above her shoulders. In an adjoining bath-dressing room lay the body of Welch.

Blood streaks on the blonde hair and pretty face of the young bride at first inclined investigators to a possible theory of double suicide—or murder and suicide—but medical examination indicated the honeymooners had died accidental deaths as the result of carbon monoxide poisoning.

No Violence Marks

Dr. James Rinehart, who performed an autopsy on Mrs. Welch, said there were no marks of violence on her body.

Blood on her face could easily have been caused by natural "purging" of the circulatory system following carbon monoxide death, Coroner William Crosby of San Mateo county stated.

Authorities were agreed that the tragedy had been accidental, but to make doubly certain of that conclusion Coroner Crosby ordered toxicological examination of the bodies.

The small room was stiflingly, oppressively hot when Daly City's Chief of Police A. L. Hilton, summoned by Harold Paul, proprietor of the Mission Auto Court at 6845 Mission street, first entered it.

Scattered about the floor, in the honeymoon luggage and in Welch's expensive car, which was parked in the adjacent garage, were grains of rice—thrown at the Des Moines wedding party the Saturday before.

fornia track upon its closing. The Tanforan head expressed the belief such a plan will do much to bring to Northern California a marked improvement in horse racing. He said the short runs now prevailing, and some of the inadequate purses offered were a handicap to high-class racing in this county. He saw in the plan also, an added attraction for visitors and tourists.

APPROVE OFFICIALS

Meanwhile the Board approved the officials, who will operate the Fall meeting at Tanforan beginning Tuesday, November 14, and which will start with the Opening Day Handicap at $1,500 as the feature of the inaugural. During the meeting Marchbank has set up other handicaps with attractive purses. They are: Yerba Buena for $2,000; Thanksgiving for $2,000; California Lassie Stakes For 1939 for $7,500; Golden Gate for $2,000; A. B. Spreckles for $2,000 and the San Francisco for $2,000. The lowest purse of the meeting will not be less than $600.

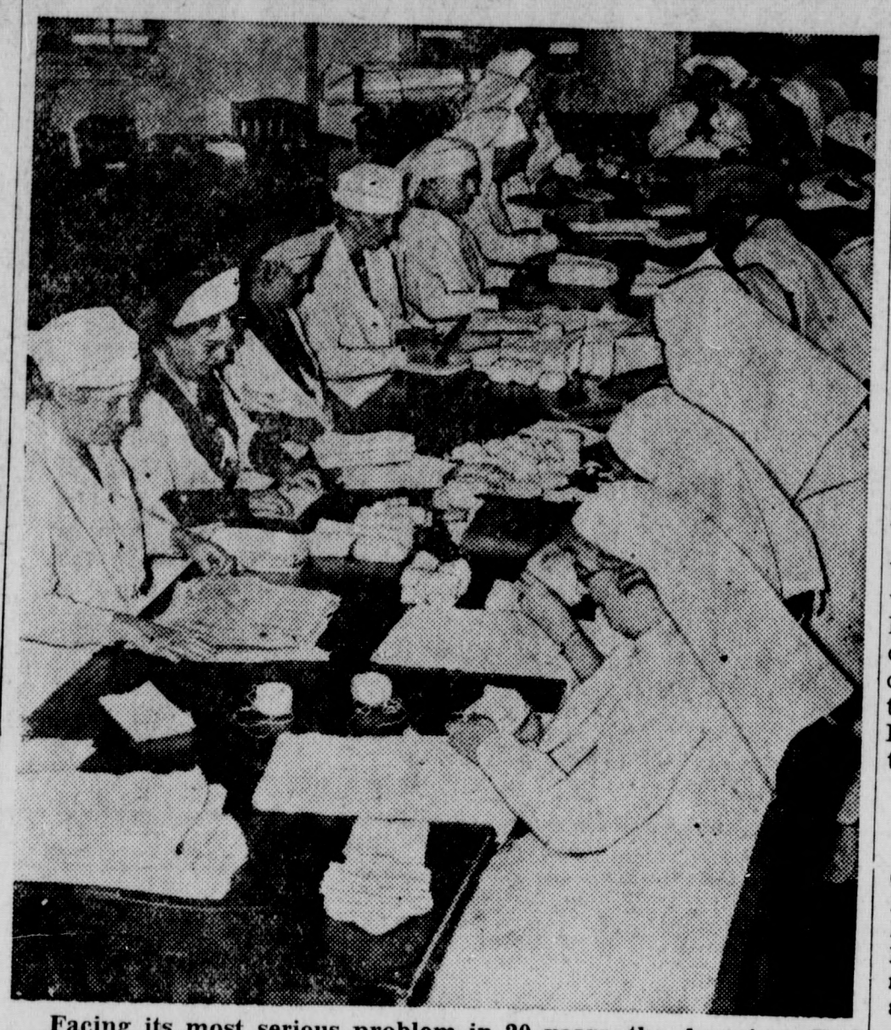

At the track it was announced that preparations are going forward for a gala opening, and an attractive 25 days of racing. Registrations show high-class entries available for the entire session, which will close on the eve of the Santa Anita opening.

Christmas Charity Day at the Races

Expected to raise more than $20,000 for charity purposes, the Christmas Charity Fund day at Bay Meadows Race Track will be held Wednesday of this week, under the joint sponsorship of San Mateo and Alameda county newspapers and the San Mateo B. P. O. Elks Lodge No. 1112.

Chairman of the committee of newspapers is Harry Butler, general manager of the San Mateo Times and president of the San Mateo County Press association. Chairman of the Elks committee for the charity event is Louis Renner, exalted ruler of the San Mateo Lodge.

Red Cross Opens 'Crisis Year' Roll Call

Facing its most serious problem in 20 years, the American Red Cross will open its annual membership drive Saturday, under direction of Lewis H. Brown, New York industrialist. Chapters hope to raise last year's membership of 5,700,000 to about 10,000,000 before the campaign closes November 30. Photo shows volunteer Red Cross workers back at their old World War task of making bandages and surgical dressings.

Pole Next Door

In his recent book "40,000 Against the Arctic" H. P. Smolka states that special arctic cruises are being planned to visit health resorts being built next door to the North pole.

Red Cross Roll Call Starts Nov. 11

The 1939 American Red Cross Roll Call starts next Saturday. This yearly Roll Call makes possible the carrying out of important emergency tasks undertaken by the Red Cross.

Chairmen for San Mateo districts have chosen their co-workers and the Roll Call membership drive will continue from November 11 to 30.

Chairman for Daly City is Mrs. Horace Fellows; for Colma, Mrs. Margaret Pauline Brown, and for Lawndale, E. A. Weisenburger.

Volunteers meet Tuesday and Wednesday at the Red Cross workroom, San Mateo junior college, to complete the chapter's quota of surgical dressings. These dressings are distributed impartially to all nations through the International Red Cross committee at Geneva.

Confederate Generals

The eight "full generals" in the Confederate army were Robert E. Lee, Albert Sidney Johnston, Joseph E. Johnston, Pierre Gustave Toutant Beauregard, Braxton Bragg, Edmund Kirby Smith, John B. Hood and Samuel Cooper.

You Rely On Your Newspapers to present FACTS WITHOUT BIAS!

Here is the Un-Biased, Un-Prejudiced Sentiment of Newspapers in all parts of San Mateo County

You expect your daily or weekly newspaper to keep you informed of governmental affairs . . . presenting the facts without prejudice, bias or mercenary interest. San Mateo county is fortunate in that all its newspapers—with a few minor exceptions—DO give you the true pictures. As an example, read these comments about the proposed county charter amendment upon which you will vote Tuesday.

Menlo Park

Re-printed from the Menlo Park Gazette

Why Change Horses?

It wasn't so many years ago that San Mateo county electors voted on the present charter and county executive form of government. Last year they elected Colonel Frederick Peterson to the office of county-executive. Now a move has started to revamp this portion of the charter and do away with that office.

According to our understanding the board of supervisors is supposed to be the legislative branch of the county government; the county executive to be the executive head. The present difficulty seems to be the failure on the part of the board to understand the limitations of its activities.

While we are holding no particular brief for Colonel Peterson, it would seem that all the squabbles that have occurred cannot be attributed to him. Both sides are probably culpable in some instances. However, there is one instance in which Peterson upheld property owners through plenty of criticism.

When the Serra highway extension was projected through the residential section, Peterson immediately entered the fight on the part of the property holders. The result has been that the project, for that area, has been abandoned and a new route selected.

When the European war broke out and the hysteria of buying took hold, Peterson refused to allow the county to commit itself for a year's supply. If all public agencies had gone ahead on a buying spree, prices would have advanced rapidly. As it is, generally speaking, such agencies have not made commitments for a long period and prices remain stable.

We have adopted the county executive type of government. Let's give it a fair trial and not be stampeded into throwing it overboard without much more consideration. Let's not experiment. Let's insist that the board and the executive get "in step" so that the county can progress. In other words, let's insist that ALL public servants work for the public good.

San Bruno

Be On Your Guard!

As many readers may know, cities throughout the State and Nation, in increasing numbers have been adopting the city managership form of government in order to take the administration of public affairs, as much as possible, out of politics, and put it on a business basis.

Wherever the city managership form of government, in large or small cities, is given a fair trial it is proving a success. On the other hand, wherever the manager form of government has been abandoned, investigation discloses that was due to selfish political interests refusing to give it a chance, in order to bring back the old spoils system with its pork barrel evils. This is precisely the situation here in San Mateo county.

Nearly eight years ago the electorate of the county adopted a new county charter providing for a county manager form of government, in order to lift the administration of the county's affairs out of politics. That really was the main objective of the new charter.

At no time since the adoption of that new charter was the manager form of government given a fair trial by the County Supervisors, as that body apparently has not been able to rise above petty politics.

Had the Supervisors been less concerned over their own political futures, and acted the part of dutiful public servants, they could and should have had the County Charter amended in the public interest, instead of playing the part of a dog in the manger.

* * * * *

Correct and amend the County Charter, if and where this is in order, but by all means do not abolish or eliminate the office of County Manager or Executive. That office is the heart of the County Charter.

Vote No on the Supervisors proposal.

The People Cannot Afford to Abolish Manager's Office!

San Mateo county voters will go to the polls Tuesday, November 7th, to vote on a change in the county charter, an amendment placed on the ballot by the board of supervisors calling for the elimination of the office of county executive. Who is asking for this change in our system, and why?

The board of supervisors have long been the charter's biggest booster . . . Who, during the regime of Ernest A. Rolison, pointed with such pride to the accomplishments of that office? The very same people who now demand elimination of the office. You ask why?

They point with "pride" to the waste of some $38,000 in wages and incidentals that has been paid to three executives since the charter was adopted. Do they point out the SAVINGS that the present county manager has made to the taxpayers' pocketbooks? No!

Executive Peterson blocked the spending of $300,000 for the purchase of Butano forest lands and another fabulous sum for tidelands at Pacific City which were to be used for park purposes. Peterson held the Pacific City buy was not in the public interest, and that the people should decide themselves on the Butano deal. He urged state money be sought for the Butano forest purchase and save the county $300,000. The deal was temporarily dropped.

Another thorn in the side of the supervisors and their backers was the "dumping" of the Hollerith machines, which stopped an expenditure of $118,000. For $6,000 a new system was "purchased," not rented, thereby affording another huge saving.

Does it sound like a return to GOOD government to eliminate an office that serves as a check on the county taxpayers' funds? The savings already made are more than enough to pay an executive's salary for years to come. Don't throw away your own purse-strings.

* * * * *

Don't let the slogan "Return of a Business-like administration" fool you. For BETTER—and MORE ECONOMICAL government, vote NO on Charter Amendment proposition on the November 7 ballot!

Daly City

Re-printed from the Daly City RECORD

Patchwork and Good Government

Citizens of San Mateo county will be called upon November 7 to vote on a charter amendment providing for the abolition of the office of county executive.

To those who are familiar with the charter and its background this measure is readily recognized as political patchwork and not a step in the direction of good government.

The county proposal was placed on the ballot by the board of supervisors. It could have been put there by a people's initiative if the citizens had so desired.

The Executive and Board of Supervisors are both elected by the people. In our opinion it is as unfair for the Board of Supervisors to initiate a measure to abolish the Executive as it would be for the Executive to initiate a measure to abolish the Board.

San Mateo-Burlingame

Reprinted from The San Mateo TIMES

Hate Campaign in Full Swing

The campaign in support of the movement to abolish the office of county executive is revealing itself more and more as a personal drive against the incumbent. Backers of the proposed charter amendment, loudly braying about the "two-headed form of government," were perfectly satisfied with that form of government while Ernest Rolison was executive. They were even inordinately proud of it. They fought Rolison's losing battle against Col. Frederick Peterson on a platform of Rolison's value to the county as executive, of the savings his office had allegedly effected and of his usefulness in county organization.

We had no two-headed dragon then. Today's loud critics of the charter form of government saw in it then only a smooth working, economical administrative and executive machine. There has been no change in the charter since that campaign, held only last year. What, then, is behind this change of front? Obviously the election of Col. Peterson.

When the county's electors replaced Rolison with Peterson, the enemies of the latter did not close their campaign. Members of the board of supervisors flagrantly opposed him in every step he took in attempting to fill his role of county executive. Because Peterson had to fight their opposition to accomplish any purpose, they now, strangely enough, point to the bickerings of the last ten months and blame the fighting on him.

Under the pretense of improving the county charter, they have started a movement to abolish his office. As we said in these columns a few days ago, this is a personal war on Peterson, pure and simple. The impetus behind the movement to amend the charter is the deep and immovable hostility of members of the board of supervisors and others toward Peterson and their determination to "get him" at whatever cost and in whatever manner.

The very people who are today shedding crocodile tears over governmental bickering are the very people whose enmity for Peterson has been at the root of this bickering, and they have now invoked a county election in an effort to settle their personal quarrel.

Whether we like Peterson personally or not we must admit that he has never had a chance fully to prove himself as county executive because of this opposition. He has, nevertheless, already more than justified his election, although less than one-fourth of his term has elapsed, in savings that run into the thousands of dollars. This is not an election to pass upon Peterson's fitness for office, although his enemies are trying to make it that. The people passed on that last year, and Peterson still has more than three years in which to justify their faith. It is neither fair to him nor honest to the county itself to attempt to place him on trial now on his record of the last ten months, although, even on that basis, he can make an impressive showing.

If and when we start to improve the charter, let's go about it honestly and with that intent, and that intent alone, in mind. Such an election should not be made an instrument of political revenge nor clouded with personal hatreds. It should be a campaign devoted to a calm and intelligent discussion of governmental issues, not personalities.

Let's be honest with ourselves and vote No on the proposal to amend the charter by abolishing the office of county executive.

Each of THESE newspapers, OWNED by San MATEO COUNTY Men and Women has joined us in presenting, calmly, the facts in this campaign.

But:-

Two local daily newspapers owned in Santa Clara county and interests seeking to amend the charter have engaged in a campaign of hysteria and vindictiveness . . . cloaking themselves in secrecy and spending thousands of dollars to achieve their ends. WHAT have they to gain . . . WHY do they fight in the dark?

VOTE "NO" ON THE CHARTER AMENDMENT

Your Privilege - Your Duty

At the polls on election day, every citizen of the United States is the equal of every other citizen of the United States—with equal powers and equal responsibilities

Most Californians would agree absent-mindedly with that simple statement of fact, but thousands, in all probability, would pass it over as of litle consequence.

But proof of the pudding can be found in the returns of almost any election. Hundreds of thousands of citizens don't even attach enough significance to their right of franchise to exercise it on election day. A 70 per cent vote is considered exceptionally high; a 50 per cent vote is considered good; a 35 per cent vote brings indignant editorials from a few conscientious editors and yawns from vote-slackers, tired after a day in the mountains, or a hard day on the golf links.

Yet the right to vote is actually the most important possession of an independent people—the key to their independence. And it is a key that has been lost today in more than half the nations of the earth, due in large part to public neglect of public responsibilities.

Beaver's Adventure

A beaver whose species virtually has been extinct for 100 years, took a fling at civilized life at Chagrin Falls, Ohio, but regretted his adventure before it could orientate itself. The 45-pound rodent's first encounter was with an automobile's fender. The pelt is on exhibition at the Cleveland Museum of Natural History.

1940 Model Prices Reduced By Buick

Soldavini Announces Cuts Up To $281

Price reductions ranging from $17 to $281 on nine of Buick's 1940 models, basic prices on two new series to be introduced this year, and addition of numerous accessories as standard equipment at no extra cost on remaining models, have been announced by M. J. Soldavini, manager Belli Motor company, local Buick distributors.

The Buick range for 1940, comparable to 1936 prices and considered the lowest in the company's history, is from $895 for 121-inch wheelbase series 40 Special business coupe to $2199 for the 140-inch wheelbase series 90 Limited limousine.

Basic prices on the Series 40 models, with the exception of the convertible phaeton, remained unchanged from 1939 notwithstanding addition as standard equipment of such important accessories as improved front and rear safety direction signal, extra front bumper guards, extra electrical equipment, trunk lights, fender lamps, oil filter and other accessories which either were not on the cars last year or were optional at extra cost.

As a result, Mr. Soldavini said, the new prices represent a substantial saving to consumers, with the price structure embracing complete and luxuriously equipped automobiles over the entire range.

Farm Co-ops

The gross business of farmer-owned purchasing organizations in the United States is estimated at $110,000,000 and the members of the 10,750 co-operative organizations market $2,300,000,000 worth of farm products in an average year.

November Shows Fatality Increase

The month of November last year showed an exceedingly high auto accident fatality rate, much the highest for the entire year. Fifteen people were killed in the county in November, 1938 traffic accidents, 9 of which occurred in incorporated areas and 6 in unincorporated areas. As to location, 8 fatal accidents occurred on El Camino Real, 3 on Bayshore Highway, 2 in San Mateo and 2 on the coast roads.

It is difficult to account for the sudden increase. Weather reports show that both the participation and the number of rainy days in November, 1938, were subnormal.

With careful driving there is no reason that the experience of 1938 should be reflected during the current month. MOTORISTS! Cut down your speed during November.

Fair Committee Thanks Community for Support

Daly City's day at the Fair was only a glorious memory this week, as the committee in charge wound up the few remaining details and extended their thanks to those who had contributed towards the day's success.

"We are especially grateful for the support given by local merchants and organizations," said Mrs. Anne Eason, secretary of the committee. H. G. King, chairman, commented upon the splendid enthusiasm with which Daly City residents had helped in the community promotion event.

Sixth Installment

History of Daly City Fire Department

(Editor's Note: This is the sixth installment of an informal history of the Daly City Fire department, dedicated to "those who serve—not for personal gain—but for the welfare of all."

Through the cooperation of William J. C. Goldkuhl, E. W. Goldkuhl sr., and Edward W. Goldkuhl jr., authors, and the Daly City Record this interesting story is made available to the general public.)

June 25, 1913, was a red letter day for the Daly City Fire Department, as the election for the passage of the water bonds took place. The passage of these bonds meant that the city of Daly City would own its own water system. This water system was to utilize artesian wells, whose water would be pumped to a reservoir on the hill overlooking the town.

With the acquisition of this water system, the Fire Department of Daly City eventually obtained a water pressure for fire fighting that was second to none.

A social side-light gleaned from the records shows that during these early periods one of the most keenly competitive sports between the companies was their tug-o-war. Great rivalry existed between the various members of the different departments as to which group had the best team.

During the month of August, the City Council of 1913 distributed to the various Fire Companies maps showing the location of the various plugs and bell towers. This speeded the efficiency of the department greatly. It is a praiseworthy fact that in this early period great cooperation was practiced between the City Council and the Fire Departments.

Insurance rates in these early days were very high, for insurance on a building was a novelty instead of a necessity, and there were often many mysterious fires in the town. People, as some thought, often liked to start fires to see if the insurance could be collected afterward.

Fires, however, were not the only threat to the well-being of Daly City to be faced by its Fire Department, for in January, 1914, because of an effort of a group of people within the town to dissolve the corporation of Daly City, Daly City Fire Department went on record with the following resolution:

"January 14: Resolved That We, the members of the Vista Grande Fire Company, do hereby go on record as being unanimously opposed to any action taken or being toward the disincorporation of Daly City."

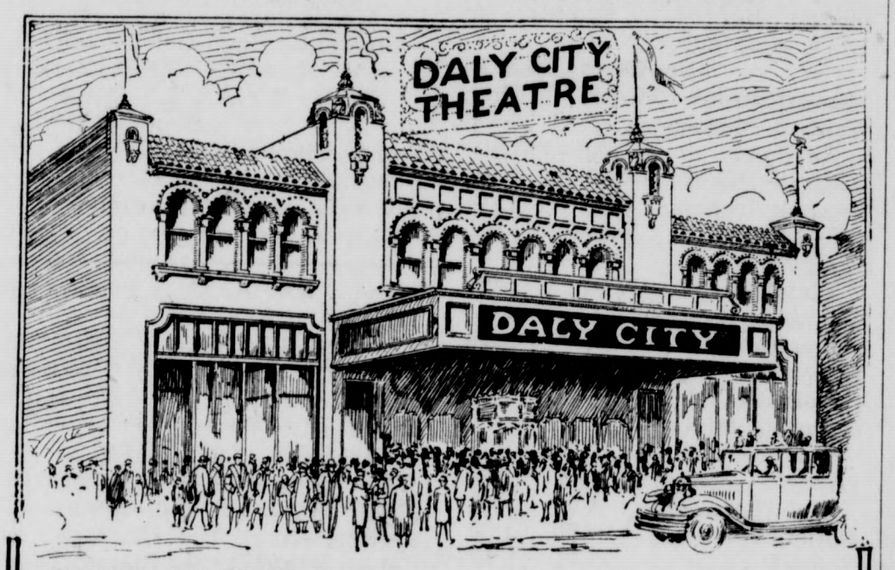

Through the efforts of the saner people and the Daly City Fire Department, this ridiculous idea was done away with.

Want to Feel like a Big Shot?

WHAT we mean is, how'd you like to feel like you used to think a big shot must feel, cruising along in his big brawny Buick, envy of every youngster in town?

Fact is, a big brawny Buick — this year's beauty of a Buick — is within your reach right now.

A husky headlong 107-horsepowered giant valve-in-head straight-eight can be yours to command—you can roll around town in the staunch and steady carriage that's sure big, beautiful and a bearcat in action when its boss gives the word!

Yes, you can ride in the gentle lap of Foamtex-cushioned luxury—shift gears with a finger-flick, take bumps in BuiCoil Springing's "full float" comfort, even signal your turns by a touch on a lever.

And what do you pay for all this — budget-bursting prices?

Ix-nay! On the contrary, you can buy a Buick for less than some sixes! And you'll find when you look into what's included in these prices that they cover many an item that you will be asked to pay extra for elsewhere.

So lift your sights. This year, go after the car you really want—which means talking with your nearest Buick dealer —right now!

Not a six but an EIGHT for $895 and up *delivered at Flint, Mich. Transportation based on rail rates, state and local taxes (if any), optional equipment and accessories—extra. Prices subject to change without notice.

The model illustrated is the BUICK SUPER *model 51 four-door touring sedan $1109 delivered at Flint, Mich. White sidewall tires additional. No extra charge for the two-tone finish shown.

chirpractic law in 1922, said in regard to Proposition No. 2:

would be equivalent to placing a buzz-saw in the inexperienced hands of a small child, and equally dangerous to the California public, Dr. Ratledge declared, urging that the initiative be defeated by an avalanche of "No" votes.

Propositions No. 3 and 4 Personal Property Brokers

A veritable army of former victims of loan sharks in California will go to the polls on November 7 and vote an emphatic "yes" on propositions three and four on the ballot, known as amendments to the Personal Property Brokers' acts. The two measures are identical, one originating in the senate and one in the assembly.

Borrowers in the higher brackets are protected by present provision of the Personal Property Brokers' act but the so-called salary borrowers have been at the mercy of cruel and relentless loan sharks who exact a return sometimes hundreds of times in excess of the original loan and often bring ruin to their already harassed victims.

For twenty years social minded citizens have endeavored to provide a remedy for such abuses, only to be met at the legislature by loan shark lobbies that year after year prevented remedial legislation. This year, the state adopted measures patterned after the uniform law sponsored by the Russell Sage Foundation, only to have the opponents nullify the acts by forcing them to a referendum vote of the public. The people will have their say on November 7.

Proposition No. 5 Oil and Gas Control

California's vast and valuable oil resources are vitally in need of protection on two fronts—protection from flagrant waste, and protection from a monopolization of these resources.

A study of the provisions of Proposition 5 on the November 7 ballot, which a "Yes" vote will bring into effect, reveals that its provisions will provide the required safeguards on both fronts.

Primarily a conservative measure, which would eliminate the present chaotic, wasteful and uncertain conditions in the oil industry, it also contains ample provision for a just and equitable production plan.

Further, the operation of this conservation measure would be in the hands of a three-man commission, consisting of the director of natural resources, the director of public works, and the director of finance, and can never be subject to the dictates of any interest or group of interests.

County Proposition Charter Amendment

As pointed out editorially last week by The Record this proposal is, pure and simple, political patchwork. If the charter needs changes and alterations, such proposals should be made by a study group instead of a political body.

Since the Board of Supervisors and Executive are both elected by popular vote, it would naturally follow that proposals to eliminate either should be made only by a people's initiative.

Proponents of the charter amendment point out the economy in this change by eliminating a $6000 annual salary.

Records indicate that during the past year the executive's office has saved the county $300,000 in the Butano forest deal, $50,000 on the Pacific City tidelands proposal, a possible $112,000 on a bookkeeping machine setup, and other items.

The Record believes it good business to keep the executive's office in county government.

Has 'Gift' Birthday

Mrs. W. Bourke Cochran of New York, widow of the famous attorney and congressman, will celebrate Monday of next week the birthday which Robert Louis Stevenson deeded to her because she was really born on Christmas day, thus missing many gifts. A birthday dinner was among conditions stipulated by the writer, who ordered that in default all rights to the birthday would be transferred to the President of the United States.

Not So Bad

The Melbourne, Australia, government is convinced that traffic and driving instructions offered in a humorous vein are more effective than the usual type. With every driving license now granted is provided a book entitled "Many Happy Returns," containing instructions like the following: "It isn't your fault if all the other road users are completely daft, but it is your fault if you aren't prepared for them to be so."

"Wizard of Oz" Brings Screen Something New

Comes to Daly City Theatre As Most Spectacular and Fantastic Musical Ever Filmed

Presenting what is heralded as the most ideal combine of color, music, dancing, spectacle, pageantry, laughs and thrills, "The Wizard of Oz," filmization of the celebrated fantasy by L. Frank Baum, comes Thursday to the Daly City theater as the most sensational musical treat to come out of the annals of Hollywood screen entertainment.

While natural color has long been held to be useful in many types of pictures, "The Wizard of Oz" is declared the first to make use of Technicolor on a sound psychological basis.

The story of Dorothy opens on a Kansas farm. This part of the picture is done in black and white photography with a new form of tint on the film. But when Dorothy goes to the imaginary Land of Oz, carried there by a cyclone, the picture becomes all-color and remains in Technicolor until she returns home.

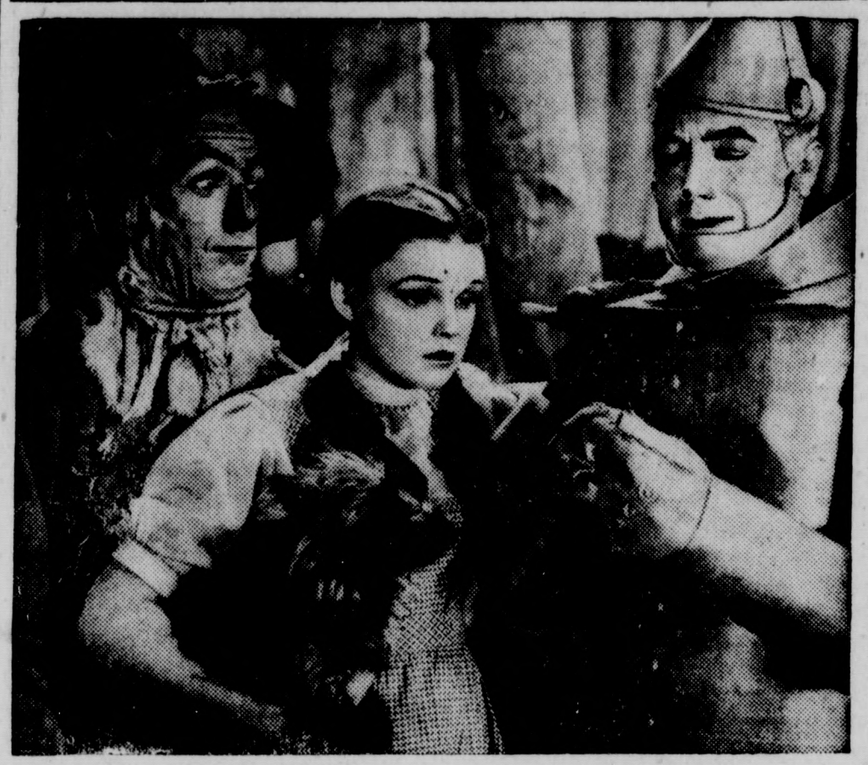

The story is the same as written by L. Frank Baum. In Oz, Dorothy meets a Scarecrow, Tin Woodman and Cowardly Lion and they go to see the Wizard to get brains for the Scarecrow, a heart for the Woodman and courage for the Lion. After many thrilling adventures they all find they had what they wanted all the time.

In the cast are Judy Garland, Frank Morgan, Ray Bolger, Bert Lahr, Jack Haley, Billie Burke, Margaret Hamilton, Charley Grapewin, Pat Walshe, Clara Blandick, a little dog named Toto and ten thousand of the amazing people of Oz.

The picture was directed by Victor Fleming, who directed "Captains Courageous" and "Test Pilot." It was produced by Mervyn LeRoy who filmed "Tugboat Annie," "Anthony Adverse" and "Little Caesar," among other hits.

Six new and catchy songs embellish the story, among them, "Over the Rainbow," "If I Only Had a Brain, the Nerve, a Heart," "We're off to See the Wizard," "The Merry Old Land of Oz," "Ding Dong, the Witch Is Dead" and "If I Were King of the Forest," written by the well-known song-writing team of E. Y. Harburg and Harold Arlen.

ADVENTURE FOR THREE

Ray Bolger, Judy Garland and Jack Haley are the three inseparable adventurers who sing, dance and frolic through the maze of fantastic happenings in "The Wizard of Oz," spectacular musical which opens Thursday on the Daly City Theater screen.

"I do not believe it will accomplish the avowed purpose of protecting the aged, but on the contrary think it will be highly detrimental to the payment of pensions and retirements enjoyed by our senior citizens.

"I believe it will lead to BANKRUPTCY OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, ITS CITIES, DISTRICTS AND PUBLIC OWNERSHIP UTILITIES.
